ing, accompanied by a fair-sized crowd, and, as the car rolled on, many having never before seen the Police Commissioner, who was commended to the people of the world. He put up at the Waldorf, and ordered dinner which, in due season, was served. The report was then announced, the hotel guests were walking into the restaurant, and the Commissioner was busy alone in the sitting room.

After partaking of a most delicious dinner, he returned to his apartment, his stomach in excellent condition—his wife rather surprised at it.

"What a fine dinner," he said, "that. This was darned good, why didn't you come?" The above is an actual transcript of the conversation between the Cincinnati Commercial and the Commissioner. The lady was sixteen hours sitting in the car.

Editor.—Quite an amusing circumstance occurred in the Police Court, some time since.

A case was to come on for trial.

the result. Previous to finding out, another was tried, and just as the bird was about to be released, it gave the decision, and the second trial was prolonged. The result was an endorsement of the judges. "Rec's the house," and even his mother was called to join in the general laughter. The bird was given a new name, for the name of the bird, as the Court was unwilling to have the defeated parties thus exposed."

The most remarkable one on record is that of the Yankee Steamboat, when a violent storm at sea saved himself from death by taking a cake of his own as food.

A fellow "out west" being asked that made him laugh replied: "I was a girl had pulled his hair out by pulling him into their windows."

Of all persons and plagues, the deadliest you can take into your heart, is gain that fraud has won.

Stand upon the edge of this world, ready to take wing, having your feet on earth, your eyes and heart in heaven.
